

KIM BEACHAM

A former recording artist for the infamous James Bratton & the 111 East Records with memorable songs such as the 1991 "Trouble", "Reasons", "True Love", "I'll be There", "Good Love to You" and "Your Love".

Kim Beacham returns larger than life with "Looking Up" produced by the Jersey Maestros released on SoulShine Recording, filled with excellent versions including the sought after Louis Benedetti Classic Mix.

Having recently performed "Looking Up" for a raving audience at the WMC Soul Beach Party, an exciting revamp by Louis Benedetti on "Looking Up" soon was released, gaining a funkier yet soulful version for the delight of the most discerning dancefloors.

An abundance of talent and a force to reckon with, look no further as Kim Beacham is here to stay and reclaim her spotlight!

"These hulking solid pieces of vinyl are another quality production from the stable of SoulShine Recordings. Purveyors of the finest underground house music SoulShine release are always tip-top on all aspects of production. A superior product, the music is here again this time with Kim Beacham who returns larger than life with this double pack produced by the Jersey Maestros. The package has it all in terms of mixes with a much sought after Louis Benedetti Classic and Rhodes Dub Mixes, as well as an Original Vocal Mix and a Club Dub. An early doors little mover, the melodies, the progressions, chords, harmonies and the funk are all here for your listening pleasure, so relax, things are looking up!" (Lisa Loco, 4clubbers UK)
